The Event

Join the Moose Jaw Health Foundation's Festival of Trees Live Auction from Your Living Room on Saturday, November 21. Join with other Moose Jaw businesses as they unite, connect and give in support of our healthcare heroes at the Dr. F.H. Wigmore Regional Hospital.

Festival this year will feature an incredible virtual live auction with auctioneer Donny Peacock and Sharon Church, and signature silent auction streamed to your digital device. Host your Festival Gala. Don your best, log on and party with friends in the comfort of your home in support of healthcare.

BRINGING THE COMMUNITY TOGETHER – CONNECT, UNITE, GIVE

Festival of Trees Live Auction from Your Living Room Festival will give local businesses an unprecedented opportunity to show their support for healthcare. When you support Festival, your business will be profiled through social media, the Festival auction site, the Foundation website, and digital display in the hospital's lobby. If your company wishes to donate an item and display it in advance of Festival in your business, the Festival social media team will highlight your participation. Trees will be displayed for free at the Moose Jaw Cultural Centre for the community to see.

THE CAUSE

Money raised at Festival of Trees will go towards the Foundation's Healthcare Heroes campaign to bring the next generation of urology equipment to our hospital. Every dollar raised at Festival of Trees will stay in Moose Jaw to help patients at the Dr. F.H. Wigmore Regional Hospital.

WAYS TO SUPPORT

The Moose Jaw Health Foundation greatly appreciates the support of the business community. There are many dynamic ways for your business to support Festival of Trees. Every dollar will make a difference in the life of a patient.
